DISTRIBUTION AT CHICAGO 1993 CONFERENCE

WHERE SHOULD YOU LOOK WHEN YOU HAVEN'T GOT A CLUE?

Under orders from the JFK Assassination Collection Act of 1992 all agencies of the government are currently combing their records to identify files that pertain to the assassination of President Kennedy. We want to ensure that the specific files we want are included in this process, so we are taking a survey of researchers to see what they want first. We want to determine what material you think is important and what should be given priority.

Results of these listings will be compiled into an informational booklet and made available to Congress, the Assassinations Collection Review Board (ACRB), interested researchers and the public. We are also requesting researchers to define their particular area of interest (Mafia, Ballistics, Autopsy, Cuba, etc.) so when documents are released they can be funneled to the right people for analysis and review.

Also please note if you are interested, or you know a responsible person who lives in Washington D.C. who like to serve as a volunteer on a Citizen's Oversight Board to monitor the presidentially appointed ACRB.
